'MPs, gov't work on solving women's debts, university students' loans'

The Lower House and the government have reached an understanding on the need to find ways to cover the accumulated debts of women and university students, the Chamber's speaker said. During a press conference on Tuesday, House Speaker Atef Tarawneh said that the issue of the gharimat (indebted women) and students' loans is a common concern of MPs and the government, adding that both sides have discussed a set of proposals to address the issue, including the establishment of a fund for that purpose.

Royal Jordanian among top 5 Middle Eastern airlines in punctuality in 2018

Royal Jordanian ranked fourth in terms of punctuality among Middle Eastern airlines last year, with a 77.13% on-time performance rate, according to OAG's Punctuality League study, released last week. The Punctuality League report took into consideration 58 million flight records using full-year data from 2018 to rank the best on-time performance (OTP) of the world's largest airlines and airports.

Mitsubishi to take part in Jordan investment conference

The Mitsubishi Corporation office in Jordan on Tuesday announced its intention to participate in the London conference to support Jordan's economy. During a meeting with Minister of State for Investment Affairs and Jordan Investment Commission Chairman Muhannad Shehadeh, the Mitsubishi office manager in Jordan said that the corporation focuses on investment in the Kingdom due to its security and stability in the Arab region, according to a commission statement. Shehadeh praised the corporation's interest in participating in the conference, stressing that the event will provide an opportunity for participants to get acquainted with Jordan's potential in several fields.
