World Bank approves $374m project providing cash assistance to 270,000 households in Jordan

The World Bank (WB) Group's Board of Executive Directors on Thursday approved a $374 million project to provide cash support to 270,000 underprivileged and vulnerable households in Jordan, including those who have recently lost their source of income as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. The Emergency Cash Transfer COVID-19 Response Project is co-financed with the UK Department for International Development (DFID), according to a WB statement made available to The Jordan Times. The COVID-19 pandemic has "substantially weakened" Jordan's near-term growth prospects and Jordanian households "are feeling the impact of this economic shock", mainly through job losses and reduced earnings, the statement said. Informal workers are being particularly impacted and have "no access" to formal social protection schemes. These workers are also disproportionately concentrated in poor and near-poor households and as a result, near-poor households are being pushed into poverty and underprivileged families are being pushed further below the poverty line. "In the wake of the COVID-19 outbreak, the World Bank mobilised resources to help Jordan face the health impacts of the pandemic," World Bank Mashreq Regional Director Saroj Kumar Jha said in the statement.

Last date for submitting income tax returns for 2019 is June 30 — ISTD

The Income and Sales Tax Department (ISTD) on Saturday announced that the last date for submitting income tax returns for the fiscal year 2019 will be June 30. The ISTD requested that obligated taxpayers submit tax returns and pay the declared amounts electronically before June 30, in implementation of Defence Order No. 10, which extended the filing deadline from April 30 to June 30, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. The ISTD stressed the necessity of submitting these declarations before the end of the legal period in order to avoid late submission fines of 0.004 of the value of the tax amounts due for each week of delay.
