Zarqa free zone sees twofold increase in vehicle clearances, reexports

The volume of clearance and re-exports of vehicles in the Zarqa free zone increased twofold in June, President of the Jordanian Free Zones Association Mohammad Bustanji said on Tuesday. Despite the suspension of the free zone's work for two months, necessitated by the coronavirus crisis, the volume of cleared and reexported vehicles during the first-half of 2020 remained similar to the corresponding period last year, with some 50,000 vehicles.
